

Building bridges to celebrate and embrace diversity on the Isle of Wight

Would You Like A New Exciting Challenge For 2018?

New Exciting Committee Team Members Opportunities For 2018

We are looking for people to volunteer and develop the work of Equal's IW:-

- Secretary – work includes typing committee minutes, organising committee meetings, taking meeting minutes, organising meeting venues, replying to Website and Facebook enquires, sending official correspondence on behalf of Equals IW.
- Press Secretary – work includes promoting Equal's IW local meetings, activities and events in the local press, local magazine publications, online and on the local radio. Also prepare and issue statements about relevant affairs on behalf of Equal's IW.
- Grants and Funding Co-ordinators – to work in a team to seek out and propose funding sources and make funding applications.
- Education and Training Co-ordinators – to work in a team to promote equality and diversity in the community and the work of Equals IW. Deliver awareness training of equality and diversity, facilitate and deliver talks and presentations on equality and diversity in the community. Delivery of formal and informal programmes involving equality and diversity activities to schools, colleges, community groups, adult learners and staff associated with businesses.
- Fundraising Co-ordinators – work in a team to plan, organise, facilitate and run fund raising activities and events for Equals IW.
- Equals Development Co-ordinators – work in a team to develop new opportunities for Equal's IW, develop partnership working opportunities, identify, suggest and co-ordinate events for Equal's IW to be involved in.

Come and Join Equal's IW Committee in 2018.

To find out more contact Mark using the following email
mark@mcenhancement.com

You can learn more about Equals IW at our website: www.equalsiw.org.uk

Or on Facebook at <https://www.facebook.com/groups/305718033228308/>

and <https://www.facebook.com/equalmensgroup/>